In 2006 Wendy Babcock left an abusive marriage and set out on a new journey to discover who she was. Along her path she found her passion for speaking and teamed up with Will Bowen to help share his vision of A Complaint Free World.

As the only active Certified Complaint Free Trainer in the world, Wendy loves to bring humor to everyday examples of complaining. She has since been appointed the Director of Certified Complaint Free Trainers.

Wendy is also the founder and creator of The Kindness Bucket Brigade. This is a movement that began August 23, 2019, with the goal of recruiting 100 members to a Facebook group to help stop online bullying. In just over 2 months, the group has grown exponentially to over 6300 members!
